Qualifying
Day 3

What is MFG...

The year is AD 202X. Self-driving cars have replaced ones with internal combustion engines on the roads. In Japan, races are held. Qualifying would be done in Time Attack format and the top 15 cars will move on. The finalists compete in a two lap race. A regulation called the "Grip to Weight Ratio" is used. The heavier the car the wider the tires. Drones broadcast to the internet worldwide. The organizer is Ryou Takahashi.

MFG is all about experience...

Over!

You need
 to focus,
 Ootani!

One mistake
 in judgement
 here will be a fatal
 mistake...!!

The way that this corner in sector 3
 continues
 for so long...

The setup of this year's car
 is also great...
 I'm shooting
 for a win!!

It's my third year. I have the confidence
 that I can compete
 now...

First of all...

I will win
the season
opener here in Odawara!!

It moves into the view of the driver, flashing a yellow signal.

The role of the drone is not just to broadcast video to the center...

In this situation, there's no way I'll ever get past qualifying...

How sad...

The drone responds by sending an image of the driver in the cockpit to the center and leads to a rescue team being dispatched.

If the course is obstructed from an accident, it stops and issues a stop signal to the following car.

It is an indispensable resource for the management of MFG.

It is a high performance drone with fully autonomous functions and a max speed of 180 kmh.

Are you returning home from school,
Miss Ren?

I guess
50...

I'm a single unemployed

By
complete
chance...

I'm younger.
Just calling me Ren is fine...

You can stop with the "Miss"...

Because I need some documents in order to use my UK license in Japan...

I went to Tokyo...

Were you going out to some-where, Kanata?

It's new.
I got a new cell
phone
as well.

It was pretty bad...

The UK
Embassy in Yotsuya...

There's no
deep meaning behind it, but if you're in a bind, you can contact me
anytime...

Then let's exchange
phone numbers.

This
is my chance!

Is that so?

うわ

Almost
there...

ぴ ぴ

Give me
a minute...

That's
true...

い え ー ん

Okay.
I'm fine
with a picture

Whenever you're mentioned at school, my friends keep asking for a picture
It's really annoying

A
picture?

Yeah
Not too
bad.

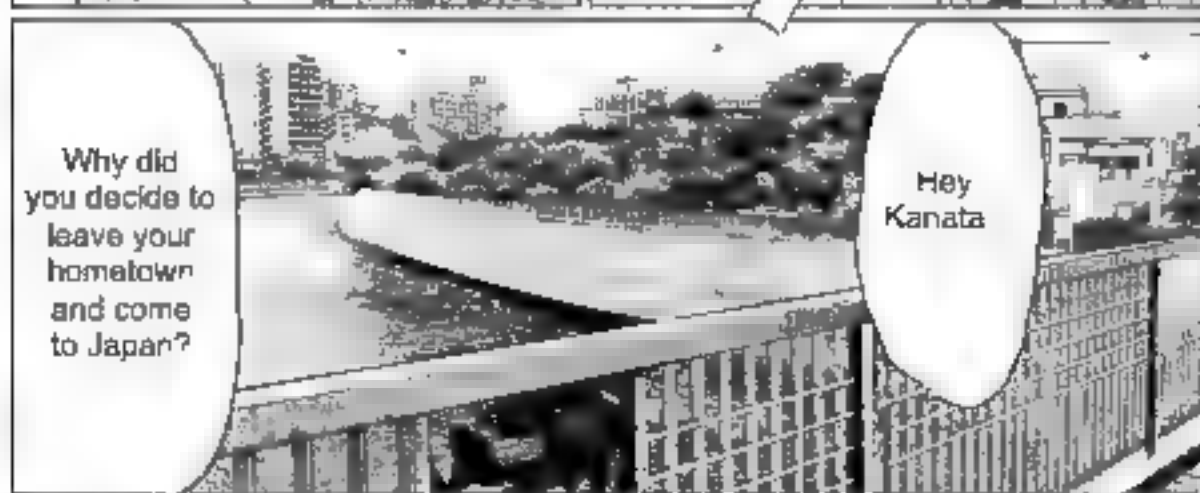

See?

It came out pretty good!

Smile

You all
good?
Say
cheese!

Why did you decide to leave your hometown
and come
to Japan?

Hey
Kanata

Your father
is !!

At this

I need to do is stay at the top.

Any more speed could make it dangerous.

I guess
this would be your

Could
this...

Almost
like an actress...

Kanata's
mom is beautiful...

This is a cherished photo. I haven't shown it
to a lot of people.

Yes.

-Anxiously-

It is the only one where my father
is shown...

This picture was probably taken about 20 years ago...

Is there something wrong, Kanata?

Let's look for another photo location.

This is sentimental somehow...

I don't know how to express my gratitude.

Nothing really...
It's just...
Why are you so kind?

Japanese people are amazing...

All I can say is that it's rather impressive.

Mr. and Mrs. Salonji...

And you too, Ren.
You're all very nice.

And Ogata...
